

The Construction Codes Act

The Construction Codes Act came into effect
January 1, 2022.

This legislation specifies that all buildings with sleeping quarters will be required to have smoke and carbon monoxide alarms installed prior to July 1, 2022. It is important to note that this includes both new and existing buildings. If you do not already have detectors in place, please make arrangements to get them installed as soon as possible.